

United States Air Force

Scientific Advisory Board

Prof. Eugene H. Spafford

Purdue University

EDUCATION:

Georgia Institute of Technology

Ph.D., Information and Computer Science, 1986

M.S., Information and Computer Science, 1981

State University College of Brockport, NY

B.A., Mathematics and Computer Science, 1979

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Purdue University, IN

Professor, Computer Sciences and Philosophy, 1998-present.

Professor, Computer Sciences, 1997-present.

Professor, Philosophy, 2000-present.

Director of the Center For Education and Research for Information

Assurance and Security, (CERIAS), 1998-present.

Associate Professor, Computer Sciences, 1993-1997.

Director of the COAST Lab, 1992-1998.

Assistant Professor, Computer Sciences, 1987-1993.

Georgia Institute of Technology

Research Scientist II, 1986-1987.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Information systems and security, policy, and computer system reliability.

PROFESSIONAL/SCIENTIFIC/HONORARY AFFILIATIONS:

ACM, Fellow; AAAS, Fellow; IEEE, Fellow; IEEE Computer Society's Golden Core, Charter Member, IEEE Computer Society Meritorious Service Certificate; Upsilon Pi Epsilon; Sigma Xi; 2000 National Software Systems Security Award from NIST/NCSC; Purdue University's Teaching Academy, Fellow; Information Systems Security Association Hall of Fame; Proclaimed CISSP, honoris causa by (ISC)<sup>2</sup>; William Hugh Murray Medal of the National Colloquium for Information systems Security Education; Purdue University Outstanding Undergraduate Teaching Award.

---